Interrupt 2026: Dear Boss Letter

Subject: Conference request: LangChain Interrupt (May 13-14)

Hi [name],

I'd like to attend Interrupt (LangChain's AI agent conference) in San Francisco on May 13-14, and am writing to ask for approval.

Here's why I think it's worth attending:
- Workshops on building and debugging agents (practical skills I can apply immediately)
- Sessions with companies like Clay, Rippling, and Workday on agent patterns they're adopting and what's working in production
- Keynotes on where agents are headed from Andrew Ng (DeepLearning.AI), Logan Kilpatrick (Google DeepMind), and LangChain's founders
- Talk directly with the product and engineering teams at LangChain and other attendees (1000+ people) about best practices

I'd come back with notes from my conversations and provide a full debrief with the team after.

Cost: $1099 for the two-day event.

Thanks for reviewing and happy to chat more if helpful.
